What's the most important for me in job:

For me now very important in job is stability, and as stability in job I mean full time job. I don't think I could be a freelancer looking for job opportunities and orders. Environment and conditions in my work can change it's not a problem, and I'll be more than happy to take new tasks and assignments.
Second most important thing for me is trust, offcoura you will not gain it immediately, and employer, boss have to have control other your achievements and actions.

What's the most unacceptable for me in job:

I don't want to be responsible for things done by others in witch I didn't participate or haven't had any control.
I don't like excessive control. Neither to be overly controlled by others nor strictly control others.
In general, I trust people.
